Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

The 2008-2009 school year proved to be another stellar year for McCracken Junior High School. Eagle pride is stronger than ever due to the numerous accomplishments and achievements garnered by our learning community.

District, state, and national recognitions continued for McCracken. Our Math Counts team dominated the regional competition, and students excelled in national exams for French, Latin, and Spanish. Other events included the Academic Team, Battle of the Brains, Youth in Government, and a trip to the historic presidential inauguration in Washington, D.C. Students in the arts excelled in the Ruffled Feathers creative writing publication and dramatic performances in the community. MJHS fine arts teachers and students collaborated and presented its first musical in many years titled "School House Rocks, Jr." McCracken's band, orchestra, and chorus repeated Superior or Excellent awards and performed repeatedly throughout the year. Athletic teams performed admirably this year in district, regional, and tournament competitions. The Lady Eagles basketball and volleyball teams proved too much for other teams to handle, resulting in Little Six Conference Tournament championships for both. Congratulations girls!

PASS testing challenges were met as teachers utilized data from MAP testing, classroom pre-assessments, differentiated instruction, and a focused culture of high expectations to foster student growth. Writing was emphasized in all classrooms, and a school-wide utilization of incentives such as ice cream parties proved not only to be popular, but successful as well. Nearly 90% of the students showed improvement on MAP testing between the fall and spring assessments. Parents and community members also were proactive in preparing MJHS students for academic achievement and growth with communication via Newsletters, website information, and other supportive efforts.

This past year proved to be another extension of the tradition, excellence, and pride that represent McCracken Junior High School. We look forward to continuing this during the next year and enjoying the relationships of our learning community members.
